WHEN YOU MOVE CLOCK UP

Western Union Advises Move the Minute Hand Around the Dial—Change at 2 o'Clock Sunday.

The Western Union Telegraph Company has issued the following instructions for changing the time on Western Union clocks to conform with the government order to set all clocks head one hour at 2 a. m. Sunday in conformity to the change in time under the new daylight closing act.

It is not necessary that the change should be made at that hour, but on Saturday night or Sunday morning the instructions are to move the minute hand once around the dial.

The instructions for Western Union clocks follow:

"Make the adjustment on an even hour by moving the minute hand forward around the dial once. Move the hand fairly rapidly to avoid it being out of synchronizing range when the change has been made. Do not attempt the change by moving the hour hand. Move the minute had only. Be careful not to move the clock out of plumb, as this will interfere with the swing of the pendulum. Do not delegate this function to an irresponsible subordinate. If you get into trouble, notify the Western Union manager."

PASS REED AFFAIR

FIGHT WILL NOT BE TAKEN TO STATE CONVENTION IN MAY

THE COMMITTEE MEETS

Will Not Decide on Date for Gathering Until National Chairman Cummings Can Be Heard From.

Jefferson City, March 29.—The organization committee of the Democratic State Committee in meeting here yesterday decided to call a state convention in St. Louis, sometime in May, immediately after the national Democratic committee meets in Chicago. The exact date will not be set until word is received from Homer B. Cummings national chairman, as to when he can be in St. Louis.

Delegates to the convention will be confined to the vice-presidents of the Democratic organization of whom there is one in each legislative district, the members of the committee, the county chairmen and the Democratic senators of the state. Only matters of state organization will be discussed and plans will be made for the 1920 campaign. Resolutions endorsing President Wilson and the covenant of the League of Nations, will be submitted but there will be no mention of the controversy which has been raging around Senator Reed, if the plans adopted yesterday by the organization committee go thru.

Indications last night are that the fifty house members who signed the "round robin" will not carry on the contest against Senator Reed. Members of that group of Democrats take the position that "the world knows where the Democrats of Missouri stand," and that when they asked Reed to resign his seat in the Senate they administered a rebuke from which Senator Reed will not soon recover.

ADOPT WAR ORPHANS

LASHER COMMUNITY WOMEN CONTINUE CHARITY WORK

MAKE UNIT PERMANENT

Will Earn Money to Keep Up Relief—Expect to do Much for French Wards in Future.

The Lasher Red Cross auxiliary, composed of a number of women living in the middle west section of the county, has recently taken up a charity apart from Red Cross work and has adopted two French orphans. The women expect to earn the money needed each year for the support of these two children, a boy and a girl, each about 12 years old, but of different families.

The Lasher auxiliary has been one of the most active in the county during all the war period and now that the Red Cross activities are not so urgent, they will not slack in good work but expect to keep their auxiliary together for the purpose of relief and charity.

Mrs. Mary Kost Riffle, a member of the unit, who adopted a French war orphan over a year ago has recently received a letter from the child's mother, Madame Darmony of Orleans, and a card from the little girl, Leone, and one from the English lady, Mrs. L. Wadekind, who translates into French, Mrs. Riffle's letters. The letter follows:

"It is with great pleasure that we read your letter which we have just received with the pretty card. It is a great pleasure for us after all we have passed through to know there is some one far away who thinks of us often. That does not bring back the one who has passed away, but it softens the grief a little for, Madam, you are very kind in your letters; one would not believe that we are strangers and so far from each other.

The English lady who translates your letters for me is very kind and amiable also. She has quite a little family to educate and I give her something every time she translates your letters; she is very glad to read them.

"My little daughter is sending you a picture of Orleans station which is not very large. Orleans is not a very large city, but is rather nice and has beautiful streets and a beautiful cathedral. We are in a very pleasant part of the city, quite near the tobacco factory where I work. There is also a very fine hospital, the most beautiful of the city, which belongs to the Americans, also handsome barracks opposite this with attractive exterior, but one is not allowed to enter. There are American guards at the door, and one cannot visit the interior which is magnificient.

Dear Madam, you say that you are sending little Leone a box. She is very happy in awaiting this pretty souvenir, which comes from a distance. In the near future, I am going to take her to this English lady to have her take lessons in English, and later she will be able to write you in English. That will not cost very much and it will be very useful to her; she learns very easily. This will be more difficult for her, but with time and patience she will succeed.

Now I must close. I spent ten hours today working shut in with the odor and dust of tobacco. It is very fatiguing, and I feel the need of repose. I am sending you and your daughter, Mabel, my kindest regards. Enclosed please find card from the English lady.

Sincerely yours,
MADAME DARMONY,
134 Fauborg, St. Vincent.

BOLSHEVIST DANGER GROWS

However, The French Proposal to Mobilize Does Not Meet Favor With American and British Delegates.

Paris, March 29.—The French proposal to mobilize the armies of Rumania, Serbia, Poland, the Czechs and Greece to their full war strength to present a solid front form the Black Sea to the Baltic against the Bolsheviki, is not meeting with favor from American and British delegates who are not willing to resort to militarism. On te other hand all admit the danger of a Bolsheviki invasion of the Allied countries such as is threatening Rumania at present.

From French source information is secured that the situation in Austria is becoming exceedingly dangerous. The spirit of Bolshevism has invaded the national guard and troops are searching houses taking what they want.

CALL FOR 50,000 MEN

UNCLE SAM WANTS SOLDIERS FOR OVERSEAS SERVICE

TO RELIEVE YANKS THERE

Will Be Sent to Europe in Contingents of 1,000—Look to Discharged Men to Re-enter.

Washington, March 29.—An immediate call for 50,000 volunteers for service in Europe has been prepared by the war department and probably will be published today. As an incentive to enlistment the men will be offered early duty in France as a relief for men in the expeditionary forces who wish to return home.

Enlistment in this service force will be for three years. The men will be concentrated at Camp Mead, Maryland, and probably will be sent overeas in contingents of 1,000 strong.

War department officials expressed confidence that no trouble would be experienced in raising the 50,000 men or an even greater number if it should be found that additional increments were necessary. The bulk of the men are expected to come from recently discharged troops, who, after a short "vacation" as civilians will desire to return to army life.

Another incentive expected to have a decided effect on the recruiting campaign is looked for among the men who, after having been prevented from going overseas by the promulgation of the armistice. Opportunity to see service in Germany, it is thought, will lead many of these to enlist.

A number of officers, probably ten or twelve, will be sent overseas with each increment of 1,000 men leaving Camp Meade.

These will be used at the concentration camp to give the preliminary training necessary to whip the men into casual organiaztions and to make the required examinations. On arrival in Europe they will take the places of officers who are eligible for discharge.

HE RECEIVED FOUR WOUNDS

Private John Hansen of Barnard, Is Survivor of Serious Injuries From Hun Shrapnel.

From the Mound City News-Jeffersonian:

Private John Hansen, of Barnard, who is here visiting with his sister, Mrs. Wm. E. Bissett, bears four honored scars of battle, from wounds suffered in the Argonne Forest drive. In spite of the serious wounds, the hours of exposure, the long stay in the hospital, Mr. Hansen is now apparently in good physical condition. He is of splendid physique, and doubtless it was his strong constitution which enabled him to win over the strong odds whichc were against him.

Mr. Hansen was wounded on the second day of the battel, Sept. 28th. He was on a hillside, temporarily sheltered in a shell hole, when on exploding shrapnel caused a serious wound in his forehead, crushing in the skull, but thanks to his "tin hat,' the shell fragment lacked the slight additional force which would have caused instant death From this wound there now is a marked depression in the forehead. After recovering consciousness, Mr. Hansen decided the shells were dropping a little too frequently in that vicinity, so he "beat it" for a nearby ravine. He had just reached that point, when another shrapnel exploding near him, tore a deep flesh wound in his left arm, severings the ligaments; made a deep cut in the little finger of the left hand, and caused a flesh wound in his hip. He then and there doubted the wisdom of trying to find a spot where the Hun shells were less likely to find him; even if he had felt so disposed, he was at that time about "all in."

So with the shells bursting about him, he lay there in the ravine all night, his wounds undressed; and it rained; the cold fall rain which fell copiously, drenching him to the skin. In addition to the shrapnel, the gas shells kept falling, which made it necessary for him to breathe through his mask, or die. The wound in his forehead made it impossible for him to fasten the gas mask on in the regular way, so he had to hold it to his nose and mouth with his uninjured hand. This is aspecimen of what our boys went through Over There. Let's not forget their sacrifices in a few weeks.

The next day the stretcher bearers found him, and he was carried back to a hospital. There he remained for three months. He was discharged on Feb. 25 at Camp Dodge, Iowa.

Private Hansen was a member of Co. E, 140th Inf., 35th Div., and he reached France at the same time our Co. L boys landed. His experience is similar to that our boys encountered.

Like all the heroes who have returned, Private Hansen tells of his experiences only in answer to direct questions, and he is apparently glad to change the subject of the conversation at the first opportunity.

NEWS FROM
NODAWAY COUNTY TOWNS

Hubert Garrett of Clearmont has purchased the garage building of J. S. Caldwell and is now sole proprietor of both building and garage. He informs us that he will build a 20 foot addition onto the rear of the building for a work shop this spring, which will give him much more room for storing cars and make it much better for him in every way.

George Wobbe of Eldon, S. D., had the misfortune to be thrown from a horse, recently, and was quite severely injured. He was taken to a hospital in Pierre for medical treatment and has been in a serious condition. His many friends in this locality hope soon to hear of his recovery.

Mrs. Chas. Leaverton of Clearmont received word from her cousin, Mrs. Bill Armstrong, of Bakersfield, Calif., that her husband had died of influenza March 14th. Mrs. Armstrong will be remembered by many in this community as Sadie Jenkins.

Walter Breit, a prominent and successful farmer living south of Barnard, has seen the light and is going to raise wonderful crops this year by means of a complete power equipment. He has recently purchased a Fordson tractor, a manure spreader attachment, a gang and belt drive for the tractor and is seriously considering a disc harrow attachment for the tractor.

Zell Thompson of Barnard will leave for Dwyer, Wyoming, next week, where he will put in his crop on his claim there. He will return in time to harvest his wheat here.

Wm. Bram of Hopkins left Monday for St. Louis where he expects to have a cataract removed from one of his eyes. He entered the Baptist Hospital in that city where his son, John, is one of the physicians and was accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Fred Abernathy, of Lennox, Iowa.

Fred Bain of Elmo dropped a chunk of coal on his foot and hurt himself so he went lame and used a cane. He had quit his usual habit and was carrying the coal for his wife. Moral: "Let the women do the work."

Mrs. R. B. Lucas of Hopkins received a card this week from Jack Sears, who is with the troops located at La Chapelle France. Mr. Sears is well remembered in Hopkins, being a son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hicks, of San Antonio, Texas, and who were residents of our town some years ago.

Clem Jeffers of Hopkins recently got some big mules from St. Joe and must expect to farm right this season. He and Albert Mutti will have to go some as they own land together now. Clem expects to farm 400 acres, and if help keeps scarce the hardware man will have to come out from town and help him.

A new firm composed of Guy McClain and James Newton, Sr., was formed in Skidmore one day not long ago for the purpose of buying the sand boat that Will Bodle has operated on the Nodaway river, west of town for the last few years.

The transfer of ownership of the boat between Mr. Bodle and the above named gentlemen has been made and the new owners expect to begin pumping sand in the near future.

J. H. Crist of Skidmore returned Wednesday morning from Ottumwa, Iowa, where he had been in attendance at a Shorthorn cattle sale.

Te average price paid for the offering in this sale was $2,000, one cow selling for over $7,000.

The Shenandoah Sentinel of recent date contained the following account of the 80th birthday celebration by A. S. Bollinger, a former resident of Burlington Junction and who is well known hereabouts.

"A. S. Bollinger was given a complete surprise visit by members of Burnside post, G. A. R. and Women's Relief Corps, Wednesday afternoon, the occasion being in honor of his 80th birthday. The party went in a body to the Bollinger home, where Comrade Bollinger and his daughters made the friends welcome. The afternoon was spent in visiting and at 4 o'clock refreshments were served."

R. M. New last fall paid $215 an acre for 240 acres of northwest Missouri land. He was offered $250 an acre, or a total profit of nearly $9,000 before he could move onto the property from his former home, between Mound City and Skidmore, but Mr. New knew a good thing when he saw it, so he declined the offer.

W. H. Piveral of Burlington Junction received a message yesterday from his son, Harry, saying he was in New Jersey and expected to be home within a few days. This was the first word they had received from him for nine weeks and they were getting uneasy. Harry was one of the first Nodaway county boys to go to France.

Second Lieutenant C. S. (Cy) Thompson writes his mother at Ravenwood from Kentesdorf, Germany, on February 25th that he had just returned from a fourteen days' furlough, most of which time was spent in Paris and Bordeaux. At Paris he saw President and Mrs. Wilson. The letter as a whole is interesting and appreciated by the good mother. In part it is as follows: "Have just returned from the first furlough that I have had since sailing from America. Had a very pleasant trip of fourteen days through France, spending a greater portion of the time in Paris and Bordeaux. Seen many things of interest, both from a historic and artistic standpoint. I had the pleasure of seeing our president and Mrs. Wilson while in Paris. We have had a wonderful winter here; very little snow and my bedroom windows open always. I do not like the climate here, for I believe the damp atmosphere is conducive to catarrh, colds and throat trouble."

Ben Jones' two-year-olds have been making some winnings at Hot Springs, Ark., during the last few days. Thelma E and Bobby Allen each hav won twict. Both are Harrigan colts and, of course, they would not be expected to come out last at the drop of the flag. Ben has a good string of colts. He brought most of them from New Orleans where he made several winnings. —Parnell Sentinel.

Has Success with Sheep.

Loran Long and son, Paul, and the Sentinel men spent a short time Sunday morning at the home of E. C. Gooden, southeast of town. Last fall he purchased 267 head of sheep and up to Sunday noon he had 150 fine lambs, many of them being twins. He will probably have from 75 to 100 more lambs before the season is over.

The shearing season will possibly be on in about a month from now and it will be a sight to see the wool "fly."—Parnell Sentinel.

NO MORE CASUALTY LISTS

On April 1 the War Department Will Discontinue Advance Issues for Publication.

Washington, March 29.—On April 1 the war department will discontinue the method of issuing casualty lists which has hitherto made them available for simultaneous publication in all newspapers throughout the country. This has been decided upon, it was explained today, because practically all the casualties incurred in fighting have been announced and few remain except deaths from injury or disease since the signing of the armistice.

The war department will furnish full lists for mailing from Washington, but they will not be issued for publication on any specified date and may be published whenever newspapers receive them. The last list issued under the present system will be published in the newspapers of April 6. Thereafter it is probable that only the killed in action will be distributed by telegraph.

A GOLD STAR RETURNED.

William Jewell Student, Mourned as a Fallen Hero, Back in School.

Students at William Jewell college were astounded yesterday to see a former classmate, whom they had honored as a hero who had made the supreme sacrifice on the battle field, strolling on the school campus. R. L. Rothwell, a sophomore two years ago when he left college to join the 89th, officially was reported killed in action at the battle of Argonne forest last September. A gold star is in the college service flag for him. Rothwell, whose only relative is serving with the medical corps overseas, did not notify any one in the United States that he had been slightly wounded in the left ankle and not killed. He recently returned to this country as a casual and went immediately to the college where he has resumed his studies.

Leland McKee Home.

Leland McKee arrived in Pickering today at noon to visit his mother, Mrs. Mollie McKee. Mr. McKee has recently been discharged from the army and went to France last June.

INDIG MUSIC MEET

GATHERING OF LEADING MUSICAL PEOPLE IN ST. LOUIS

HEAR EDUCATION PLAN

Is American Child Entitled to Musical Teaching at Public Expense Will Be Important Question.

St. Louis,—The Music Supervisor's National Conference will hold its eleventh annual convention next week in St. Louis, meeting for regular sessions at Hotel Statler and holding its three concerts at the Odeon. The session will begin Monday morning and end Friday night. The convention will be the most important gathering of musical people in America this year, and will bring to St. Louis about 500 delegates, representing schools, colleges and universities in all parts of the United States.

The question whether the American child is entitled to a musical education at the public expense will be discussed by men and women of international reputation as musicians and pedagogues. Some of them are: Prof. Charles Farnsworth of Columbia University; Dr. Carl E. Seashore, dean of the graduate school of the University of Iowa, who has invented a system of measuring a child's capabilities in a musical way; Mrs. Frances Elliott Clark of the Victor Talking Machine Company; Dr. O. F. Lewis, head of the music work in the War Camp Community Service.

E. L. Coburn, director of music in the St. Louis public schools is in charge of local arrangements for the convention. He has arranged a number of ways of entertaining the delegates. Among these is a day in the St. Louis schools, with which the conference is opened. Every phase of music in the St. Louis schools will be demonsrated by the pupils.

A public reception with addresses by the mayor and representatives of the Chamber of Commerce, the various organizations of St. Louis and by President Osbourne McConathy of the Supervisors' Conference will take place the evening of the opening day.

Three free public concerts will be given at the Odeon.

One evening of the week will be devoted to negro music, showing the development from the negro folk song to the art song and chorus. Negro composers and musicians of national and international fame will take part in this program.

FR. ODILLO HOLDS SERVICE

Impresive Lenten Devotion Conducted at Conception by Priest of St. Mary Catholic Church.

The Conception Courier of this week carries the following article regarding the opening Lenten service conducted at the cathedral there by the Rev. Father Odillo of this city:

The Forty Hours Devotion was conducted this year by the Rev. Father Odillo Schieber of St. Mary's Church, Maryville, Mo. The public services during these days were most impressive and the sermons preached by the Rev. Father Odillo Schieber were of extraordinary beauty and interest. The Rev. Father is a brillant speaker and the vivid illustrations offered from practical life and experience appeal strongly to the intellect, and thereby not only holds the closest attention of his audience but readily convinces and in consequence evokes nobler sentiments and good resolutions. Tuesday morning the Feast and the Annunciation, practically the whole parish received Holy communion all the large number of candidates were also received into the Sodalities on the eve of the feast. Although the heavy rain on Tuesday evening made it impossible for many to attend, yet a good crowd was present. The Rev. Father Ildephonse of Parnell, Mo., held the evening or closing services, assisted by Father Odillo as deacon and Father Joachim as sub-deacon. The children were zealous in having the altar richly decorated with natural and cut flowers, for which they had diligently solicited funds, and a cortege of flower girls accompanied the procission Both the choir and the faithful in adoration are deserving of credit for their great manifestation of loyalty and faith rewarded, no doubt, by untold spiritual benefits and graces.

WORSE THAN TURKS

BOLSHEVIK HORRORS INDESCRIBABLE SAYS RUSSIAN WOMAN

LEADERS ARE DANGEROUS

Not One Among Them Who Cannot Be Bought—Trotsky's Orders Were to Rob and Murder.

Dubois, Pa., March 29.—An interesting story of internal Russia under the rule of the Bolsheviki is told in a letter received here from a Russian woman who fled from Moscow to Vladivostok.

"When the revolution broke out the political powers were to be freed," she writes. "Instead of that they let loose everyone—murderers, thieves, etc.—those are now our Bolsheviks. There is not one among them who has a past clean of sin; there is not one among them who cannot be bought. Never has money been so valued. You can take sums out of the bank by paying 15 per cent to the Bolshviks. For that purpose they had a special cabinet in Moscow. in the Restaurant Praga, where you could find them from morning till evening—always drunk—and anything you wanted could be obtained there.

"The leaders are dangerous men. They are playing va banque, hoping for a general social revolution, as they call it. In reality they are mortally afraid of the entente powers, knowing perfectly well how their bought armies will run the minute they have to face the real troops.

"Do you know that when they took Saratoff, Trotzky gave this official order to his troops: 'Rob anything you like and for three days the women in town belong to you.' Why do you cry out in horror of the atrocities committed by the Turks toward the Armenians? The Bolsheviks are worse and more dangerous, as it is their intention to starve out and shoot all the intelligence of Russia, to destroy the brains of the nation—then, indeed, their work is done.

"A lot of officers, to save their families from starvation have entered the red army. The minute an officer deserts the ranks and joins the enemy the family gets absolutely nothing to eat, and as they have no money and no opportunity is given them to earn any, they die of hunger.

"The Bolsheviks who have broken and destroyed all the good cars find that cattle cars are quite good enough for traveling and, if people who sit on the roofs or hang at the doors fall and kill themselves, well, that's all right.

"The first thing to do for Russia is to give the people education. Some sixty years hence we may perhaps be able to become a free democratic country. Now it is impossible. People do not know what freedom means and that there are obligations, too."

Forum-ettes

We see a good deal in the papers about the new "sleeping sickness." We have known about this disease for a long time but have always heard it called an another name—laziness.

The Good Hope corrspondent of the Hopkins Journal writes:

"Frank Davis met with a peculiar accident one day last week. He lifted the lid of the cook stove to spit and bent his neck a little too low, the hot lid of the stove and the end of Frank's nose coming together, the result being that Frank is wearing a little black blister on the end of his nose about the size of a good sized pea."

And don't get the idea in your head son, that by leading a double life you are doing two men's work.

Better wait awhile. The fishing is never good until the ground gets warm enough to sit down on.

"Listening in" on the phone this morning we overheard something like the following:

"Hallo! Thatchoo, Kit?"

"Sure 'Slil, ain't it?"

"Betcharlife! Whenja gitback?"

"Smorning, whenjoo?"

"Lilwilago. Javvagoodtime?"

"Uh-huh."

"Whereja gokit?"

"'Sconsin, werjoo?"

'Mishgun, jervver go?"

"Javvanyfun?"

"Uh-huh. Lots. Wener you cummin over?"

"Safnoon."

"Sarite. Well, slong."

"Slong."

Confession I confess that I have often sinned greviously in my sermons herein, but of one my conscience is clear—I have never declared that the life of a real good conscientious preacher was a soft snap.

Now that it has been fully demonstrated that we can do anything by constitutional amendment, let us proceed to abolish the mouthing reformers who want to bury tobacco in the same grave with intoxicating liquor. Then let us carefully proceed to regulate both food and clothing. As the fighting Irishman at a wake exclaimed, "That's the use o' bein' a feller unless you're a hill of a feller."

Brethren and Sisters: Bow your heads in silent prayer for a few moments while I say unto you: Too many of you pass right by the Lord's office and never look in and say "howdy" until you become bankrupt or see ruin staring you in the face then you walk in, extend your hand, sit down, talk about the weather, family affairs, crop prospects and how poor business is, and then strike Him for a loan without interest. Then shall He say unto you, "Depart, for I know you not." Amen.

WHEN YOU MOVE CLOCK UP

Western Union Advises Move the Minute Hand Around the Dial—Change at 2 o'Clock Sunday.

The Western Union Telegraph Company has issued the following instructions for changing the time on Western Union clocks to conform with the government order to set all clocks head one hour at 2 a. m. Sunday in conformity to the change in time under the new daylight closing act.

It is not necessary that the change should be made at that hour, but on Saturday night or Sunday morning the instructions are to move the minute hand once around the dial.

The instructions for Western Union clocks follow:

"Make the adjustment on an even hour by moving the minute hand forward around the dial once. Move the hand fairly rapidly to avoid it being out of synchronizing range when the change has been made. Do not attempt the change by moving the hour hand. Move the minute had only. Be careful not to move the clock out of plumb, as this will interfere with the swing of the pendulum. Do not delegate this function to an irresponsible subordinate. If you get into trouble, notify the Western Union manager."

PASS REED AFFAIR

FIGHT WILL NOT BE TAKEN TO STATE CONVENTION IN MAY

THE COMMITTEE MEETS

Will Not Decide on Date for Gathering Until National Chairman Cummings Can Be Heard From.

Jefferson City, March 29.—The organization committee of the Democratic State Committee in meeting here yesterday decided to call a state convention in St. Louis, sometime in May, immediately after the national Democratic committee meets in Chicago. The exact date will not be set until word is received from Homer B. Cummings national chairman, as to when he can be in St. Louis.

Delegates to the convention will be confined to the vice-presidents of the Democratic organization of whom there is one in each legislative district, the members of the committee, the county chairmen and the Democratic senators of the state. Only matters of state organization will be discussed and plans will be made for the 1920 campaign. Resolutions endorsing President Wilson and the covenant of the League of Nations, will be submitted but there will be no mention of the controversy which has been raging around Senator Reed, if the plans adopted yesterday by the organization committee go thru.

Indications last night are that the fifty house members who signed the "round robin" will not carry on the contest against Senator Reed. Members of that group of Democrats take the position that "the world knows where the Democrats of Missouri stand," and that when they asked Reed to resign his seat in the Senate they administered a rebuke from which Senator Reed will not soon recover.

COLLECTING OLD CLOTHING

Boy Scouts Aid Red Cross in Bringing in the Bundles.

The Boy Scouts are always ready to respond to any call for civic or post-war service and today are collecting bundles of old clothing for the Red Cross. Lists were supplied by the secretary and the bundles collected will be taken to Red Cross headquarters for packing and shipping.

There is yet need of much clothing to fill the quota assigned to the local chapter and those who have used clothing are urged to bundle it up and call the Red Cross when it will be called for. F. S. King who is in charge of the drive announces that another week has been allowed in which to secure the quota.

ADOPT WAR ORPHANS

LASHER COMMUNITY WOMEN CONTINUE CHARITY WORK

MAKE UNIT PERMANENT

Will Earn Money to Keep Up Relief—Expect to do Much for French Wards in Future.

The Lasher Red Cross auxiliary, composed of a number of women living in the middle west section of the county, has recently taken up a charity apart from Red Cross work and has adopted two French orphans. The women expect to earn the money needed each year for the support of these two children, a boy and a girl, each about 12 years old, but of different families.

The Lasher auxiliary has been one of the most active in the county during all the war period and now that the Red Cross activities are not so urgent, they will not slack in good work but expect to keep their auxiliary together for the purpose of relief and charity.

Mrs. Mary Kost Riffle, a member of the unit, who adopted a French war orphan over a year ago has recently received a letter from the child's mother, Madame Darmony of Orleans, and a card from the little girl, Leone, and one from the English lady, Mrs. L. Wadekind, who translates into French, Mrs. Riffle's letters. The letter follows:

"It is with great pleasure that we read your letter which we have just received with the pretty card. It is a great pleasure for us after all we have passed through to know there is some one far away who thinks of us often. That does not bring back the one who has passed away, but it softens the grief a little for, Madam, you are very kind in your letters; one would not believe that we are strangers and so far from each other.

The English lady who translates your letters for me is very kind and amiable also. She has quite a little family to educate and I give her something every time she translates your letters; she is very glad to read them.

"My little daughter is sending you a picture of Orleans station which is not very large. Orleans is not a very large city, but is rather nice and has beautiful streets and a beautiful cathedral. We are in a very pleasant part of the city, quite near the tobacco factory where I work. There is also a very fine hospital, the most beautiful of the city, which belongs to the Americans, also handsome barracks opposite this with attractive exterior, but one is not allowed to enter. There are American guards at the door, and one cannot visit the interior which is magnificient.

Dear Madam, you say that you are sending little Leone a box. She is very happy in awaiting this pretty souvenir, which comes from a distance. In the near future, I am going to take her to this English lady to have her take lessons in English, and later she will be able to write you in English. That will not cost very much and it will be very useful to her; she learns very easily. This will be more difficult for her, but with time and patience she will succeed.

Now I must close. I spent ten hours today working shut in with the odor and dust of tobacco. It is very fatiguing, and I feel the need of repose. I am sending you and your daughter, Mabel, my kindest regards. Enclosed please find card from the English lady.

Sincerely yours,
MADAME DARMONY,
134 Fauborg, St. Vincent.

The meeting tonight will consist of a program, various contests and games by the boys, and refreshments will be served. M. A. Peery and Frank Green are directing the boys in their arrangements for a big time in honor of their leader. All friends of the boys and the

However, The French Proposal to Mobilize Does Not Meet Favor With American and British Delegates.

Paris, March 29.—The French proposal to mobilize the armies of Rumania, Serbia, Poland, the Czechs and Greece to their full war strength to present a solid front form the Black Sea to the Baltic against the Bolsheviki, is not meeting with favor from American and British delegates who are not willing to resort to militarism. On te other hand all admit the danger of a Bolsheviki invasion of the Allied countries such as is threatening Rumania at present.

From French source information is secured that the situation in Austria is becoming exceedingly dangerous. The spirit of Bolshevism has invaded the national guard and troops are searching houses taking what they want.

CALL FOR 50,000 MEN

UNCLE SAM WANTS SOLDIERS FOR OVERSEAS SERVICE

TO RELIEVE YANKS THERE

Will Be Sent to Europe in Contingents of 1,000—Look to Discharged Men to Re-enter.

Washington, March 29.—An immediate call for 50,000 volunteers for service in Europe has been prepared by the war department and probably will be published today. As an incentive to enlistment the men will be offered early duty in France as a relief for men in the expeditionary forces who wish to return home.

Enlistment in this service force will be for three years. The men will be concentrated at Camp Mead, Maryland, and probably will be sent overeas in contingents of 1,000 strong.

War department officials expressed confidence that no trouble would be experienced in raising the 50,000 men or an even greater number if it should be found that additional increments were necessary. The bulk of the men are expected to come from recently discharged troops, who, after a short "vacation" as civilians will desire to return to army life.

Another incentive expected to have a decided effect on the recruiting campaign is looked for among the men who, after having been prevented from going overseas by the promulgation of the armistice. Opportunity to see service in Germany, it is thought, will lead many of these to enlist.

A number of officers, probably ten or twelve, will be sent overseas with each increment of 1,000 men leaving Camp Meade.

These will be used at the concentration camp to give the preliminary training necessary to whip the men into casual organiaztions and to make the required examinations. On arrival in Europe they will take the places of officers who are eligible for discharge.

Private John Hansen of Barnard, Is Survivor of Serious Injuries From Hun Shrapnel.

From the Mound City News-Jeffersonian:

Private John Hansen, of Barnard, who is here visiting with his sister, Mrs. Wm. E. Bissett, bears four honored scars of battle, from wounds suffered in the Argonne Forest drive. In spite of the serious wounds, the hours of exposure, the long stay in the hospital, Mr. Hansen is now apparently in good physical condition. He is of splendid physique, and doubtless it was his strong constitution which enabled him to win over the strong odds whichc were against him.

Mr. Hansen was wounded on the second day of the battel, Sept. 28th. He was on a hillside, temporarily sheltered in a shell hole, when on exploding shrapnel caused a serious wound in his forehead, crushing in the skull, but thanks to his "tin hat,' the shell fragment lacked the slight additional force which would have caused instant death From this wound there now is a marked depression in the forehead. After recovering consciousness, Mr. Hansen decided the shells were dropping a little too frequently in that vicinity, so he "beat it" for a nearby ravine. He had just reached that point, when another shrapnel exploding near him, tore a deep flesh wound in his left arm, severings the ligaments; made a deep cut in the little finger of the left hand, and caused a flesh wound in his hip. He then and there doubted the wisdom of trying to find a spot where the Hun shells were less likely to find him; even if he had felt so disposed, he was at that time about "all in."

So with the shells bursting about him, he lay there in the ravine all night, his wounds undressed; and it rained; the cold fall rain which fell copiously, drenching him to the skin. In addition to the shrapnel, the gas shells kept falling, which made it necessary for him to breathe through his mask, or die. The wound in his forehead made it impossible for him to fasten the gas mask on in the regular way, so he had to hold it to his nose and mouth with his uninjured hand. This is aspecimen of what our boys went through Over There. Let's not forget their sacrifices in a few weeks.

The next day the stretcher bearers found him, and he was carried back to a hospital. There he remained for three months. He was discharged on Feb. 25 at Camp Dodge, Iowa.

Private Hansen was a member of Co. E. 140th Inf., 35th Div., and he reached France at the same time our Co. L boys landed. His experience is similar to that our boys encountered.

Like all the heroes who have returned, Private Hansen tells of his experiences only in answer to direct questions, and he is apparently glad to change the subject of the conversation at the first opportunity.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Murrin of St. Louis are visiting at the home of John Murrin in this city.

Hubert Garrett of Clearmont has purchased the garage building of J. S. Caldwell and is now sole proprietor of both building and garage. He informs us that he will build a 20 foot addition onto the rear of the building for a work shop this spring, which will give him much more room for storing cars and make it much better for him in every way.

George Wobbe of Eldon, S. D., had the misfortune to be thrown from a horse, recently, and was quite severely injured. He was taken to a hospital in Pierre for medical treatment and has been in a serious condition. His many friends in this locality hope soon to hear of his recovery.

Mrs. Chas. Leaverton of Clearmont received word from her cousin, Mrs. Bill Armstrong, of Bakersfield, Calif., that her husband had died of influenza March 14th. Mrs. Armstrong will be remembered by many in this community as Sadie Jenkins.

Walter Breit, a prominent and successful farmer living south of Barnard, has seen the light and is going to raise wonderful crops this year by means of a complete power equipment. He has recently purchased a Fordson tractor, a manure spreader attachment, a gang and belt drive for the tractor and is seriously considering a disc harrow attachment for the tractor.

Zell Thompson of Barnard will leave for Dwyer, Wyoming, next week, where he will put in his crop on his claim there. He will return in time to harvest his wheat here.

Wm. Bram of Hopkins left Monday for St. Louis where he expects to have a cataract removed from one of his eyes. He entered the Baptist Hospital in that city where his son, John, is one of the physicians and was accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Fred Abernathy, of Lennox, Iowa.

Fred Bain of Elmo dropped a chunk of coal on his foot and hurt himself so he went lame and used a cane. He had quit his usual habit and was carrying the coal for his wife. Moral: "Let the women do the work."

Mrs. R. B. Lucas of Hopkins received a card this week from Jack Sears, who is with the troops located at La Chapelle France. Mr. Sears is well remembered in Hopkins, being a son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hicks, of San Antonio, Texas, and who were residents of our town some years ago.

Clem Jeffers of Hopkins recently got some big mules from St. Joe and must expect to farm right this season. He and Albert Mutti will have to go some as they own land together now. Clem expects to farm 400 acres and if help keeps scarce the hardware man will have to come out from town and help him.

A new firm composed of Guy McClain and James Newton, Sr., was formed in Skidmore one day not long ago for the purpose of buying the sand boat that Will Bodle has operated on the Nodaway river, west of town for the last few years.

The transfer of ownership of the boat between Mr. Bodle and the above named gentlemen has been made and the new owners expect to begin pumping sand in the near future.

J. H. Crist of Skidmore returned Wednesday morning from Ottumwa, Iowa, where he had been in attendance at a Shorthorn cattle sale.

Te average price paid for the offering in this sale was $2,000, one cow selling for over $7,000.

The Shenandoah Sentinel, of recent date contained the following account of the 80th birthday celebration by A. S. Bollinger, a former resident of Burlington Junction and who is well known hereabouts.

"A. S. Bollinger was given a complete surprise visit by members of Burnside post, G. A. R. and Women's Relief Corps, Wednesday afternoon, the occasion being in honor of his 80th birthday. The party went in a body to the Bollinger home, where Comrade Bollinger and his daughters made the friends welcome. The afternoon was spent in visiting and at 4 o'clock refreshments were served."

R. M. New last fall paid $215 an acre for 240 acres of northwest Missouri land. He was offered $250 an acre, or a total profit of nearly $9,000 before he could move onto the property from his former home, between Mound City and Skidmore, but Mr. New knew a good thing when he saw it, so he declined the offer.

W. H. Piveral of Burlington Junction received a message yesterday from his son, Harry, saying he was in New Jersey and expected to be home within a few days. This was the first word they had received from him for nine weeks and they were getting uneasy. Harry was one of the first Nodaway county boys to go to France.

Second Lieutenant C. S. (Cy) Thompson writes his mother at Ravenwood from Kentesdorf, Germany, on February 25th that he had just returned from a fourteen days' furlough, most of which time was spent in Paris and Bordeaux. At Paris he saw President and Mrs. Wilson. The letter as a whole is interesting and appreciated by the good mother. In part it is as follows: "Have just returned from the first furlough that I have had since sailing from America. Had a very pleasant trip of fourteen days through France, spending a greater portion of the time in Paris and Bordeaux. Seen many things of interest, both from a historic and artistic standpoint. I had the pleasure of seeing our president and Mrs. Wilson while in Paris. We have had a wonderful winter here; very little snow and my bedroom windows open always. I do not like the climate here, for I believe the damp atmosphere is conducive to catarrh, colds and throat trouble."

Ben Jones' two-year-olds have been making some winnings at Hot Springs, Ark., during the last few days. Thelma E and Bobby Allen each hav won twict. Both are Harrigan colts and, of course, they would not be expected to come out last at the drop of the flag. Ben has a good string of colts. He brought most of them from New Orleans where he made several winnings. —Parnell Sentinel.

Has Success with Sheep.

Loran Long and son, Paul, and the Sentinel men spent a short time Sunday morning at the home of E. C. Gooden, southeast of town. Last fall he purchased 267 head of sheep and up to Sunday noon he had 150 fine lambs, many of them being twins. He will probably have from 75 to 100 more lambs before the season is over.

The shearing season will possibly be on in about a month from now and it will be a sight to see the wool "fly."—Parnell Sentinel.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank our friends and relatives for their kindness in the death of our darling baby, Theda Leonarda.

Move to Wyoming.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Wohlford of Barnard will move soon to Douglas, Wyo., to make their home on a ranch near that place.

NO MORE CASUALTY LISTS

On April 1 the War Department Will Discontinue Advance Issues for Publication.

Washington, March 29.—On April 1 the war department will discontinue the method of issuing casualty lists which has hitherto made them available for simultaneous publication in all newspapers throughout the country. This has been decided upon, it was explained today, because practically all the casualties incurred in fighting have been announced and few remain except deaths from injury or disease since the signing of the armistice.

The war department will furnish full lists for mailing from Washington, but they will not be issued for publication on any specified date and may be published whenever newspapers receive them. The last list issued under the present system will be published in the newspapers of April 6. Thereafter it is probable that only the killed in action will be distributed by telegraph.

A GOLD STAR RETURNED.

William Jewell Student, Mourned as a Fallen Hero, Back in School.

Students at William Jewell college were astounded yesterday to see a former classmate, whom they had honored as a hero who had made the supreme sacrifice on the battle field, strolling on the school campus. R. L. Rothwell, a sophomore two years ago when he left college to join the 89th, officially was reported killed in action at the battle of Argonne forest last September. A gold star is in the college service flag for him. Rothwell, whose only relative is serving with the medical corps overseas, did not notify any one in the United States that he had been slightly wounded in the left ankle and not killed. He recently returned to this country as a casual and went immediately to the college where he has resumed his studies.

Leland McKee Home.

Leland McKee arrived in Pickering today at noon to visit his mother, Mrs. Mollie McKee. Mr. McKee has recently been discharged from the army and went to France last June.

INUBIG MUSIC MEET

HEAR EDUCATION PLAN

Is American Child Entitled to Musical Teaching at Public Expense Will Be Important Question.

St. Louis,—The Music Supervisor's National Conference will hold its eleventh annual convention next week in St. Louis, meeting for regular sessions at Hotel Statler and holding its three concerts at the Odeon. The session will begin Monday morning and end Friday night. The convention will be the most important gathering of musical people in America this year, and will bring to St. Louis about 500 delegates, representing schools, colleges and universities in all parts of the United States.

The question whether the American child is entitled to a musical education at the public expense will be discussed by men and women of international reputation as musicians and pedagogues. Some of them are: Prof. Charles Farnsworth of Columbia University; Dr. Carl E. Seashore, dean of the graduate school of the University of Iowa, who has invented a system of measuring a child's capabilities in a musical way; Mrs. Frances Elliott Clark of the Victor Talking Machine Company; Dr. O. F. Lewis, head of the music work in the War Camp Community Service.

E. L. Coburn, director of music in the St. Louis public schools is in charge of local arrangements for the convention. He has arranged a number of ways of entertaining the delegates. Among these is a day in the St. Louis schools, with which the conference is opened. Every phase of music in the St. Louis schools will be demonsrated by the pupils.

A public reception with addresses by the mayor and representatives of the Chamber of Commerce, the various organizations of St. Louis and by President Osbourne McConathy of the Supervisors' Conference will take place the evening of the opening day.

Three free public concerts will be given at the Odeon.

One evening of the week will be devoted to negro music, showing the development from the negro folk song to the art song and chorus. Negro composers and musicians of national and international fame will take part in this program.

Impresive Lenten Devotion Conducted at Conception by Priest of St. Mary Catholic Church.

The Conception Courier of this week carries the following article regarding the opening Lenten service conducted at the cathedral there by the Rev. Father Odillo of this city:

The Forty Hours Devotion was conducted this year by the Rev. Father Odillo Schieber of St. Mary's Church, Maryville, Mo. The public services during these days were most impressive and the sermons preached by the Rev. Father Odillo Schieber were of extraordinary beauty and interest. The Rev. Father is a brillant speaker and the vivid illustrations offered from practical life and experience appeal strongly to the intellect, and thereby not only holds the closest attention of his audience but readily convinces and in consequence evokes nobler sentiments and good resolutions. Tuesday morning the Feast and the Annunciation, practically the whole parish received Holy communion all the large number of candidates were also received into the Sodalities on the eve of the feast. Although the heavy rain on Tuesday evening made it impossible for many to attend, yet a good crowd was present. The Rev. Father Ildephonse of Parnell, Mo., held the evening or closing services, assisted by Father Odillo as deacon and Father Joachim as sub-deacon. The children were zealous in having the altar richly decorated with natural and cut flowers, for which they had dilligently solicited funds, and a cortege of flower girls accompanied the procission Both the choir and the faithful in adoration are deserving of credit for their great manifestation of loyalty and faith rewarded, no doubt, by untold spiritual benefits and graces.

LEADERS ARE DANGEROUS

Not One Among Them Who Cannot Be Bought—Trotsky's Orders Were to Rob and Murder.

Dubois, Pa., March 29.—An interesting story of internal Russia under the rule of the Bolsheviki is told in a letter received here from a Russian woman who fled from Moscow to Vladivostok.

"When the revolution broke out the political powers were to be freed," she writes. "Instead of that they let loose everyone—murderers, thieves, etc.—those are now our Bolsheviks. There is not one among them who has a past clean of sin; there is not one among them who cannot be bought. Never has money been so valued. You can take sums out of the bank by paying 15 per cent to the Bolshviks. For that purpose they had a special cabinet in Moscow, in the Restaurant Praga, where you could find them from morning till evening—always drunk—and anything you wanted could be obtained there.

"The leaders are dangerous men. They are playing va banque, hoping for a general social revolution, as they call it. In reality they are mortally afraid of the entente powers, knowing perfectly well how their bought armies will run the minute they have to face the real troops.

"Do you know that when they took Saratoff, Trotzky gave this official order to his troops: 'Rob anything you like and for three days the women in town belong to you.' Why do you cry out in horror of the atrocities committed by the Turks toward the Armenians? The Bolsheviks are worse and more dangerous, as it is their intention to starve out and shoot all the intelligence of Russia, to destroy the brains of the nation—then, indeed, their work is done.

"A lot of officers, to save their families from starvation have entered the red army. The minute an officer deserts the ranks and joins the enemy the family gets absolutely nothing to eat, and as they have no money and no opportunity is given them to earn any, they die of hunger.

"The Bolsheviks who have broken and destroyed all the good cars find that cattle cars are quite good enough for traveling and, if people who sit on the roofs or hang at the doors fall and kill themselves, well, that's all right.

"The first thing to do for Russia is to give the people education. Some sixty years hence we may perhaps be able to become a free democratic country. Now it is impossible. People do not know what freedom means and that there are obligations, too."

Forum-ettes

We see a good deal in the papers about the new "sleeping sickness." a long time but have always heard it called an another name—laziness.

The Good Hope corrspondent of the Hopkins Journal writes:

"Frank Davis met with a peculiar accident one day last week. He lifted the lid of the cook stove to spit and bent his neck a little too low, the hot lid of the stove and the end of Frank's nose coming together, the result being that Frank is wearing a little black blister on the end of his nose about the size of a good sized pea."

And don't get the idea in your head son, that by leading a double life you are doing two men's work.

Better wait awhile. The fishing is never good until the ground gets warm enough to sit down on.

"Listening in" on the phone this morning we overheard something like the following:

"Hallo! Thatchoo, Kit?"

"Sure 'Slil, ain't it?"

"Betcharlife! Whenja gitback?"

"Smorning, whenjoo?"

"Lilwilago. Javvagoodtime?"

"Uh-huh."

"Whereja gokit?"

"'Sconsin, werjoo?"

'Mishgun, jervver go?"

"Javvanyfun?"

"Uh-huh. Lots. Wener you cummin over?"

"Safnoon."

"Sarite. Well, slong."

"Slong."

Confession I confess that I have often sinned greviously in my sermons herein, but of one my conscience is clear—I have never declared that the life of a real good conscientious preacher was a soft snap.

Now that it has been fully demonstrated that we can do anything by constitutional amendment, let us proceed to abolish the mouthing reformers who want to bury tobacco in the same grave with intoxicating liquor. Then let us carefully proceed to regulate both food and clothing. As the fighting Irishman at a wake exclaimed, "That's the use o' bein' a feller less you're a hill of a feller."

Brethren and Sisters: Bow your heads in silent prayer for a few moments while I say unto you: Too many of you pass right by the Lord's office and never look in and say "howdy" until you become bankrupt or see ruin staring you in the face then you walk in, extend your hand, sit down, talk about the weather, family affairs, crop prospects and how poor business is, and then strike Him for a loan without interest. Then shall He say unto you, "Depart, for I know you not." Amen.

Some Changes Will Be Needed.

Suggestion is made that Rye, N. Y., should change its name to Soda after July 1.—New York Herald.

Bourbon county, Kentucky, also needs attention.—Toledo Blade.

Our notion is that Brandywine creek near Philadelphia, should be got out of history.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Presently somebody will be denaturing Beersheba.—Kansas City Post.
